To the Ladies of Raleigh:

At a meeting of the Young Men's Tilden and Vance Campaign Club the following resolution, introduced by our friend C. W. Jones, was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That it is the earnest desire of this club to have the hearty co-operation of the ladies of Raleigh in our efforts to start the Old North State on a career of glory by the election of the candidates put forward by the Democratic party of the State, and it is therefore requested of all ladies who favor our efforts in that direction to wear the badge as adopted and worn by the club."

The above resolution was passed last week, and although it has not been published, there are many noble ladies now wearing the badge with pride, and it is not an unfrequent occurrence to meet them on the street.

If there is anything in the world that would inspire our young men to work with more zeal and determination than ever before, it is to know that they have the hearty co-operation, open support, and the earnest God speed you, of the fair ladies of our city. God bless the ladies.

An Eloquent Sermon.

Rev. Dr. Marshall, rector of Christ Church, preached on Sunday a sermon of remarkable excellence from the text, "Come all ye that labor, and are heavily laden, and I will give you rest." The sermon was one of rare beauty, eloquence, and power, and made a deep impression upon his congregation.

Raleigh, and Governor Vance's Speech as Reported by a Baltimorean.

We clip the following extracts from the correspondence of "Chesapeake," the sprightly and sparkling reporter of the Baltimorean (which is undoubtedly one of the best gotten up papers, and contains more general news than any paper in the country) concerning our city and Governor Vance's speech.

I have been in the capital of the Old North State about two weeks, and must confess to a liking for its wide shaded streets handsome and comfortable residences, generous and hospitable people, and last, but a long ways from least, cheerful, intelligent and pretty girls.

During the latter part of last week there was considerable political excitement here. Between the Republican State Convention and a visit from ex-Gov. Z B. Vance, the whole town was in an uproar for two or three days and nights. On Friday, the day fixed upon for Gov. Vance to address the people, the crowd was immense, and such enthusiasm I never witnessed in Maryland or Virginia. He arrived the day previous and was met at Durham by a special committee, who had gone forward to make him welcome. At the depot here, an open carriage drawn by six beautiful white horses, received him, and he passed to the Yarborough House amid the continual plaudits and huzzas of the people. He spoke for two hours Friday, and it was generally admitted that he had lost none of his remarkable power before the people.

He is just as logical, just as eloquent, and if possible, more witty than he was ten years ago The people had come in from the rural districts in various directions, and among them I was surprised to see so many ladies.

The audience who listen to him, alternately laughed, roared with cheers, and occasionally there welled up a tear as the speaker with a masterly hand swept every chord of the human heart, and led the populace at will.

At night there was a general illumination, the Chinese lanterns and tar barrels everywhere lighting up the city and presenting a very pleasant and beautiful scene.

That Vance will carry the State and Govs. Tilden and Hendricks receive her electoral vote in November, there is not now a shadow of a doubt. The Republicans seem to feel defeat in their every nerve, and you could not get one to wager shucks on the result. Already may be seen the fatal handwriting on the wall, and the Radical Belshazzar is even now trembling in his every joint. I have heard none estimate Gov. Vance's probable majority at less than 25,000, and many think it will far exceed that number.

* * * * * * *

This letter is all about political matters, but the truth is the people here are now thinking of but little else.

Maj. John C. Winder.

We with our citizens generally congratulate the Raleigh & Gaston and Raleigh & Augusta Air-Line Railroads in having re-elected as their General Superintendent, Maj. John C. Winder, under whose skillful management the affairs of the companies have been so satisfactorily managed for the past nine months. Maj. Winder being a cultivated civil engineer, and having had a large experience in the construction and management of other important internal improvements in this and other States, added to his courteous and gentleman bearing to all with whom he is brought in contact, must greatly add to the already deserved popularity of the important roads now under his management.

Every moment of our lives every part of our body is wearing out and being built up anew. This work is accomplished by the blood, but if the blood does not perform its work properly the system is poisoned. Cleanse the blood by the use of Dr. Bull's Vegetable Pills. Harmless but efficient.

A CARD.—To all who are suffering from the errors and indiscretions of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of manhood, &c., I will send a recipe that will cure you, FREE OF CHARGE. This great remedy was discovered by a missionary in South America Send a self-addressed envelope to the REV. JOS. T. INMAN, Station D, Bible House, New York City. ap 16-D&W6m

APPETITE A NECESSITY.—Appetite is a necessity. Without it, sufficient food is not received into the stomach either to nourish the system or to give the stimulus to the bowels which they require. Both these organs and the liver become torpid in consequence, and the blood grows poor in quality and quantity. Improve the appetite, therefore, and avoid such results. This is most effectually done with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, a tonic appetizer and alterative without peer. It gives not only an unwonted zest for food, but enables the stomach to digest and the system to assimilate it Flatulence, heartburn nausea, and every other concomitant of indigestion, are removed by it, as are also biliousness and constipation. Each nerve and fibre of the body is made to tingle with health by its use, and it is the leading remedy for despondency.

Dr. J. J. Caldwell, Baltimore states; "I have used Colden's Liebig's Liquid Extract of Beef and Tonic Invigorator largely in debility, febrile and nervous diseases, and I have found it one of the most reliable of nutrient toules now in use or to be found in pharmacy, Williams & Harwood, Agts.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE.

University of North Carolina.

CHAPEL HILL, July 22nd 1876.

The University has begun the second year of its new existence with every prospect of success, Its friends may take heart and be of good cheer; for the turning point is passed successfully. The grand old oaks of our majestic campus, the cool sparkling water of our college well, the charming walks and beautiful flowers which of yore delighted Carolina's daughters on their Commencement visit to Carolina's sons will lend their charms to many future generations of sons and daughters.

Those who wish the University well and those who wish it ill have looked anxious for the begining of this session; for this session indicates the public approbation of the past, and to a great extent measures the public confidence in the future. There are many reasons why the number of students should not be very large. The increasing scarcity of money, the low price of cotton, and the decrease of business generally operate against higher education. No doubt, in additional to these reasons, the excessive summer heat has helped to keep away many who might have come, if the session had not opened until September.

However, there has been a steady strem of

during the past week, and the students of last year have returned quite promptly. It is very lively when a load of old students enters the village. Sam Morphis, who runs a coach and four and resides at the University town, claims to be the prince of coachmen, and looks contemptously upon Jack Tilly, a novus homo from Durham, (his would be competitor.) Sam excels in dignity of manner; Jack, in mother-wit. The former brings in the old students; the latter, the newies. We came up with Jack. Having heard from him the orthodox traditions of the college properly emphasized and faithfully embellished, we took advantage of a pause and remarked "Jack, you would be a splendid preacher" He replied namely, "No, sir, too big a liar to be a preacher, ought to be a lawyer," and thus does the budding collegian add to his amazingly small knowledge of human nature.

About 5 o'clock P. M. Sam's driver brandishes his whip, draws forth his tin bugle, and with defiant and joyful blasts delegates Jack to his proper position and proclaims to the village that "the boys" are coming. Pretty soon the coach and four turns the corner, and dashes up the street with flags flying, bugles blowing, and boys cheering, professors smiling, ladies waving handkerchiefs and the village generally on the street. "Hallo, Dick!" "Is that you Joe?" "where's Jim, Nick?" &c., &c., ad infin. Ah, its a glorious time. It is no doubt so at all colleges; but the amount of glory on such occasions at Chapel Hill cannot be beaten anywhere.

There are thirty seven new students on the roll, and they are from all parts of the State. The west is better represented than it was last year, and the various denominations are more evenly represented.

THE ENTRANCE EXAMINATIONS

were more severe than last year, and yet the faculty ague that this class is well prepared. A few who failed to reach the standard required, will be examined again at their request, of the schools in the State the following have boys in this class: D. A. Long Bingham. Hassel, J. H. Horner, Hillsboro Academy, T J. Horner, Wilkinson, Scott and Atkinson, Hughes, Lutwick, N. C. College Summerell, Finly, Hines. and Fanatte. All classes are represented here, and every feature of the University shows its cosmopolitan character. If any one might form an opinion on such short acquaintance we should say that the new students are sober, steady and earnest, and have come here to study and learn, and not merely to get through college. They are generally older than the students of last year and look larger. About one-half are optional students, illustrating the tendency of the people in this practical age to economize in all things, by devoting time for an education in those branches of learning only which relate directly to their chosen profession. Some Northern colleges with 600 students have less students of Latin and Greek than the University of North Carolina.

We like the

SCIENTIFIC EDUCATION.

There is an interesting reality, a satisfactory tangibility about such studies as Chemistry, when taught in the laboratory, that will arouse any student whose case is not hopeless. We walked into the chemical laboratory yesterday, and saw about 40 students with coats off begining the study of chemistry by practising with the blow-pipe. It looked warm and dirty to us, but all were apparently deeply interested and intent upon their work. They practise in the laboratory three afternoons a week for one year, and then begin with the

SPECIAL COURSE IN ANALYTICAL CHEMISTRY.

Four of last year's students are pursuing this course, intending, we presume to become chemists, or druggists, or physicians, or farmers.

We think that scientific studies will not detract from the classics, but that they will furnish a pleasant relief to students and a reciprocal stimulus to each other.

THE COST OF LIVING.

Here it is small, the highest price is $12½ a month for board. One lady takes for $11. There is a lady here named Mrs. Tilly, who takes boarders in clubs, and furnishes board at cost. Somebody called her the Queen of Clubs. We intend to try it in her club next month.

Tuition costs us $70 a year, including rooms &c., Most of the boys prefer the South building on account of the large window-sills, in which we can easily sit, but Old East seems to us decidedly preferable.

ANON.

Hard Times—Politics—Picnic—Chalybeate Well, &c.

GREENSBORO, N. C., July 22, '76.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE NEWS: Everything here is dull, and the cry is continually, "hard times." The politicians seem to be disinterested especially the Radicals, all of them, (with one exception) wear long faces. Cannot you, Mr. Editor, do something to wake up and enliven our paper, the Patriot? Can't you stir the editors, of that journal, and put before them the necessity of their being fully alive to the interests of the Conservative party of this ticket.

The Radical paper last week, published an article on the raising of our pole, which for extreme bitterness and malignity we have never seen equaled in the issue of the Patriot, the only reply it made consisted of one or two "squibs."

We want a Democratic paper in Greensboro, that will give these Radicals as good as they send, and pay them back "in coin of their own kind." We do sincerely hope, that the editors of the Patriot will need no further reminders from any one of its party, but that they may fully realize the situation they occupy, and henceforth endeavor to make their paper worthy of the support and patronage of the party.

The Main street Methodist Sabbath School, of Danville, Va., with a large number of persons, visited us last Wednesday, and pick-nicked in the College grounds. They were met at the depot by the Methodist Sabbath School of this place, and escorted to the pic-nic grounds, lead by the Greensboro Cornet Band Every one seemed to enjoy themselves, and at half past four they left for home, fatigued, dusty and hot.

The great attraction in Greensboro is the calybeate well, in the lot at Jones' factory, near the depot, every morning and evening. Numbers of our citizens attend the "springs," many who have used the water say they have experienced much benefit from it.

The earth is so dry and dusty, that we are deluged by dust, we have had no rain since the latter part of June, corn is twisting and curling up, there will be a very poor crop in this county, unless we get rain soon.

CENTENNIAL.

The Assault on the Local Editor of the "News."

RALEIGH, N. C., July 24, 1876.

TO THE EDITORS OF THE NEWS:

The assault upon Mr. Enniss, the Local Editor of the NEWS, on last Saturday night, an account of which appeared in Sunday morning's issue, has awakened the profoundest indignation in the breast of every true lover of peace, both Democrat and Republican. It will hardly be denied that the motives which actuated the fiend, in the dead hour of the night, to attempt to commit such a foul deed, were prompted by feelings purely of a political nature—engendered, doubtless by the severe, truthful, and just criticisms of the Local, through the columns of the NEWS, upon the corrupt and rascally Radical ex-officials of this city. If an assault of the same character and under the same circumstances had been made upon one of the editors of a Republican journal, how ready would the Republican press have been to cry out, in the language of Grant's organ at Washington—the Republican—"Another Ku-Klux Outrage;" and doubtless followed in a two column editorial, calling upon Grant to send down troops to "quell the riot and secure to every American citizen his rights under the Constitution," &c., &c. But that by-the-way; what I have to say is bearing more directly on the subject. I want to say to those of the Republican party who countenance such acts of violence as that attempted by the ruffian on the person of Mr. Enniss, if that is their little game, just to let us know in time, that we may be prepared. Mr. Enniss is a bold, out-spoken exponent of the views of every true Democrat in the city and county, and any attempt to suppress, by violence or otherwise, those sentiments which find expression in the columns of the NEWS, will be discountenanced by every peaceable and law-abiding citizen—Democrat and Republican.

THE BAYONET POLICY.—All the signs of the times indicate that military will be employed to carry the elections in the doubtful Southern States.

FRANKLIN TRIBUNE.—J. A. Harrell, Esq., late editor of the Henderson Tribune, has removed to Franklin, Virginia, and established there the Franklin Tribune. It is a lively, newsy sheet; and we wish good luck to the enterprise.

VANCE AND SETTLE.—The rival candidates for Governor meet to-day upon the stump, at Rutherfordton. This is the first time they have stood face to face since the nominations took place. Their swords will be measured for the first time. The public will eagerly listen for accounts of the tilt, and Vance's victory. A special correspondent will report it for us.

SKETCHES OF WESTERN NORTH CAROLINA.—This is the title of a new book soon to appear from the press of the NEWS PUBLISHING COMPANY. It is from the pen of Mr. C. L. Hunter, of Lincoln county. It will be about the size of Wiley's North Carolina Reader. Mr. Hunter's efforts will be a good beginning in this kind of historical investigation, and it is hoped others will follow in promoting similar researches. In this way materials may be accumulated for some future historian to do justice to the fair name and fame of the Old North State.

TROOPS FOR SOUTH CAROLINA.—The Philadelphia Times says: Gov. Chamberlain, of South Carolina, has come in hot haste to Washington to ask the President and the Secretary of War what they are going to do about the Hamburg outrage. Mr Cameron very properly asks him in return what he is going to do about it first. The Secretary will have his soldiers ready about election time, but he will take care to preserve the semblance of legality, and for appearance sake at least, it would be only decent for the Governor of South Carolina to assert some authority before calling frantically for "more troops." Let Chamberlain go home and attend to his duties.

THE BATTLE OF HAMBURG.

Nothing for a long time has excited the public mind more than the Hamburg affair. The press, North and South, teems with matter concerning it. It has been a topic of debate in Congress. The Governor of South Carolina has interviewed the President upon the subject, and the bloody-shirt radicals are jubilant over it.

The Southern press has, very generally, been prompt to condemn the massacre of the prisoners. That was indeed a terrible and disgraceful act it gleams out prominently above all the other bloody circumstances accompanying the conflict. There was no excuse or palliation for the deliberate shooting of the negroes who were captured by the whites.

The collision of the races was unfortunate, but not of that deeply criminal nature which marks the massacre of the prisoners. There is no defense, that we have yet heard of, for the white men who committed that barbarous deed, and they should be arrested and tried, if it be possible to get them before a just tribunal.

But whether the proceedings were right or wrong, one thing is very certain, that there are no people on the earth who have been as much oppressed as the white men of South Carolina; and none who have acted with a greater spirit of forbearance under the worst tyrannies that were ever practised upon the Caucassian race. They are now the only white people in the world completely subjected to the negro race. They have been oppressed, robbed, and plundered as no other people ever were. They have been taxed without representation—without mercy—without any returning benefit. They are without voice in the making of the laws that govern them; without power in the execution of those laws

No words can paint the horrors the white men of South Carolina have had to endure since the war at the hands of brutal, insolent, ignorant and thievish negroes. Their forbearance under it all, has been remarkable.

But still, there is no justification of the cold-blooded killing of the Hamburg prisoners; and the act merits the severest condemnation. The South Carolinians will have to bear the mighty ills they endure, patiently for a while yet. Time will solve the problem. The Anglo-Saxon race is bound to triumph in the end over the negro.

DECLINE OF THE REPUBLICAN PARTY.

On all sides we hear of Republicans quitting their party. The information of this character comes from the east, and from the west and from the great middle country. The white wing of the Radical party is diminishing in numbers. We desire information on this point from every county in the State. Will friends of the cause of reform give us this information?

Some days ago we asked through the editorial columns of the NEWS for the names of Republicans who had recently forsaken the party, or intended to do so.

Yesterday we received the first response. It comes from Lenoir county. We publish it to-day. It contains startling, but gratifying, information of desertions from the carpet-bag-revenue-office-holding concern led by Settle and Smith. No better evidence of its downfall is needed than the fact that prominent citizens heretofore connected with it are joining the Conservatives.

THE AMENDMENTS.

The Republicans are opposing the proposed amendments to the present Constitution, with all the vigor and venom at their command. They display the most deadly hostility to them.

We propose to show from time to time during the campaign the record of the Republican party upon these amendments by giving the history of each of the thirty propositions now before the people. We will take each amendment and give the vote upon its final passage in the Convention. And thus will be revealed the true position of the Republican delegates upon the various reforms proposed to the people.

This record will show that many of the amendments were voted for by the Republicans; and that the loud cry which they now raise up against them, is part hypocrisy, and made for political effect.

MASS-MEETING IN NASH.

To-morrow there will be a Democratic mass-meeting at Ferrell's, Nash county. Judge Daniel G. Fowle will be one of the speakers.

Among the other speakers announced, are Charles M. Cooke, a great favorite in Nash; Henry Bourne, of Edgecombe, an effective canvasser; and Captain Samuel Williams, the Poet-Orator.

The Rocky Mount Mail in noticing this coming occasion, speaks as follows of our distinguished townsman, Hon. Daniel G Fowle:

"Judge Fowle has no superior in North Carolina as an eloquent and brilliant canvasser. At the State Convention, in accepting the nomination for Elector, he delivered one of the ablest and grandest orations ever heard in the State Let the people of Nash turn out en masse to welcome to their county this noble champion of our cause, and great defender of the principles of Civil and Constitutional Liberty."

Decline of the Republican Party—The Desertions in Lenoir County.

KINSTON, N. C., July 20, 1876.

EDITOR OF THE NEWS:—In compliance with the request in your editorial to-day, I desire, for your information, to mention the names of a few very prominent citizens of Lenoir county, who were hitherto strong Republicans, but are now supporters of the Conservative nominees. In the first place I will mention the name of Mr. E. F. Cox, the County Treasurer, who has publicly renounced his allegiance to the Republican party. Then there is Mr. James S. Cannady, a member of the Radical Board of County Commissioners, a man of great strength, who says he will use his influence for the Reform candidates; there is Mr J. S. Cummings, who has become disgusted with the party of corruption, and fallen in the Democratic ranks. A. J. Loftin, Esq., a prominent and very respectable lawyer of our town who at one time was Mayor, and in '74 was a Republican candidate for the nomination of Solicitor for this district, has enrolled his name as a member of our Tilden and Vance Club.

I might mention the name of our worthy townsman John J. Coleman, Esq., formerly a Republican, but now says "if you will show him one that is honest he'll show you a hen with teeth;" and I could call the names of several more but think this sufficient to show that the Republican party in this state is on the decline, and we would not be surprised at any time to hear that Squire King, or scalawag Nick Hunter, had entered the Democratic fold.

Very respectfully,

A CONSERVATIVE.

PERSONAL INTELLIGENCE.

Prof. Kerr, of this State, is still in Philadelphia.

The Randolph Regulator calls the Revenue men nosers.

A convention of confectioners meets in New York July 27th.

Reidsville Times: E. B. Withers of Yanceyville is about to remove to Danville.

A Mrs. Annie Johnson was murdered at Leavenworth by Louis Earlemein, a man whom she had several times refused to marry.

Reidsville Times: Judge Settle, the Republican candidate for Governor, was in our town Thursday. Look out for squalls.

Hon. George E. Pugh of Ohio, who died recently, was once considered the most promising man in that State. The war and his sincerity and manliness ended his public career.

A son of Jefferson Davis belongs to the Chickasaw Guards, of Memphis, the company which recently tendered its services to the government to avenge the death of Custer.

The Philadelphia Times says: "Robert Settle, a brilliant young Democrat, takes the stump in North Carolina in opposition to the election of his brother, Hon. Thomas Settle, the Republican candidate for Governor."

A subscriber writes: Would it not be a good plan for President Grant to keep his Cabinet mounted and in the saddle, so they may be ready to vacate at a moment's notice.—Boston Post.

Charlotte Observer: An incident which perhaps doesn't occur once in a century, happened, yesterday, in this city; one man knocked another down for asking him to take a drink. The usual style is to knock 'em down because they won't set 'em up.

Asheville Expositor: Judge J. L. Henry, of this place, will probably be the appointee on the Supreme Court bench, and J. W. Bowman, Esq., of Mitchell, will be appointed to Judge Henry's place in this District.

CAMPAIGN NOTES.

The Congressional Convention of the 8th District meets at Old Fort on the 27th inst.

Roanoke News: Vance is creating the wildest enthusiasm wherever he goes, and people, far and near, turn out to hear him. He will make such a canvass as has never been known in this State before and Radicals may well stand in awe of him.

During Gov. Vance's stay in Rocky Mount, he, together with Leach and other gentlemen, was invited out to the hospitable home of B. H. Bunn, Esq., where all were elegantly entertained by that gentleman and his accomplished lady.

Salisbury Examiner: The Rads dont like their ticket, either State or National. Hayes and Wheeler fell on them like a wet blanket, and Settle and Smith is more than they can stand. The rank and file of the party are justly disgruntled at Dockery's defeat, and enter the contest but indifferently. Even some of the leaders here say that Vance is bound to be elected. All the indications seem to be that Settle can not carry the full strength of his party, while Vance will run ahead of his ticket.

A South Carolina correspondent of the Charlotte Observer says: "The industrious farmer of South Carolina has but little hope of his State, which is overrun by hypocrites, thieves and robbers, just as North Carolina would be were it not for such bulwarks of honesty and patriotism as Vance, Cox, Waddell, Steele, and hosts of others who are laboring so faithfully to keep the government out of the hands of those who would gladly see it robbed and their pockets filled with its spoils like Moses and others of South Carolina.

POLITICAL NOTES.

Ethan Allan, leader of the Liberals, has come square out for Hayes and Wheeler.

Enough counties in Georgia have instructed for Colonel Colquitt to assure his nomination for Governor.

Hon. W. A. J. Sparks, made a speech in Richmond, the other night, in which he said his cherished sentiment was—

"A union of lakes,
A union of lands,
A union of states,
A union of hearts,
And the American flag forever."

Charlotte Observer: There will be a grand rally of the Democratic-Conservative party of Catawba and adjacent counties, at Catawba Station, on Wednesday, 2d of August, when the people will be addressed by Col. Walter L Steele, our candidate for Congress, and Capt. R. P. Waring, our Presidential Elector.

The Republicans have control of the government of South Carolina. If they are such great friends of order as they pretend, why did not that government disperse the rioters before the collision took place? The only answer is that they wanted a riot to help manufacture political capital in the North.—N. Y. World.

The Democratic constitution makes the people the sovereigns and the officials the servants. All power is vested in and flows from the people. Our Democratic system calls for 45,000,000 sovereigns, and a few men selected to preside who ought to be their servants. And this grand plan came from the brain and the heart of Thomas Jefferson.

Gov. Walker, of Virginia, said in a recent speech that the Administration was rotten to the core and there were none so poor that would do it reverence. Hayes steered clear of all this, or rather endeavored so to do in his letter of acceptance, but failed. And yet the platform adopted at Cincinnati sustained Grant, and Hayes accepts that platform, and if elected he will carry out its provisions.

There are loud calls in Indiana for the nomination of a new Republican candidate for Governor. Republican newspapers say Mr. Orth's explanation of his connection with the Venezuelan claims is not satisfactory, and they declare a change must be made or defeat will surely follow. The independent press of the State predicts inevitable defeat unless Mr. Orth's name is taken from the ticket.

NORTH CAROLINA.

There are large numbers of visitors at Cleaveland springs.

Front Street Methodist Church, Wilmington, was struck by lightning last Friday, and slightly damaged.

Middleburg, N. C., is so named on account of its being equi-distant between Raleigh, Weldon, Henderson and Ridgeway.

Charlotte Observer: The health of the city was never better; remarkably few people have died since the beginning of the summer season, and there is almost no sickness in the city among the whites. Yet, strange to say, the mortality among the colored population is very great. In one day last week, there were four interments in the colored cemetery, and the keeper of Elmwood says that on that day nine colored persons laid dead in the city. The remaining five were carried off by their friends and buried beyond the limits of the city.

Campaign Prospects.

[New York Tribune Rep.]

For the first time in many years, the Democrats show something like generalship in the conduct of their campaign. Lacking in that higher sagacity which is born of sincere devotion to principle, their tactics, nevertheless snows great shrewdness. They rely upon Mr. Tilden's reputation as a reformer and a hard-money man to secure New York and Connecticut. They count upon Mr. Hendricks and a repudiating platform to carry Indiana, and so divide the October States that their vote shall not bring crushing dicouragement to the party elsewhere. Hatred of Grantism, and keen desire to shake off Federal control, will spur the Democrats of the South to do their utmost. Tilden's strength and the Mongolian resolution are expected to secure the Pacific States. From recent events, it appears that some compromise between jarring Republican factions in Louisiana has been effected, which may result in carrying that State, as a majority of its voters are colored. It is probable that Governor Chamberlain can carry South Carolina. Omitting these States, the Democrats expect 126 electoral votes from the South, 9 from the Pacific coast and 3 from Colorado with 15 from Indiana, 6 from Connecticut and 35 from New York, making 194 in all, nine more than enough to elect.

What are the Republicans doing to meet this plan? They might save Connecticut by nominating Jewell, but it is said that he will not accept. They might save New York by nominating Mr. Evarts, but he may not accept, and unwise partisans are threatening that their vengeance will fall upon the ticket if Mr. Cornell is not nominated. They might have carried Indiana, had not the President taken care to disgust the party by the removal of ex-Senator Pratt. As matters stand how do the Republicans propose to win? There is but one chance. Unless they cut loose from the Administration, so completely that they may enjoy its unconcealed hostility, they are scarcely likely to find the returns satisfactory. If they insist that men like Mr. Jewell and Mr. Evarts shall save the party from overthrow; if placing them at the head in Connecticut and New York, they take such a course elsewhere that honest voters of Indiana shall burn to revenge the insult to faithful public servants by the election of the candidate whom Grant dislikes, they may pluck from the nettle danger the flower safety. But have they the courage?

Negro Rule.

[N. Y. World.

So long as Mississippi was controlled and misgoverned by the negroes and their carpet bag white leaders, there were scenes of violence all over the State. So in Arkansas. So in Georgia. So in every Southern State where ignorance and corruption and irresponsible force made and administered the laws. And so there would have been constant scenes of violence in any Northern State under the like conditions. But with the triumph of intelligence and order, represented by the Democratic party in each of these States, thorough and absolute peace was restored. Not Massachusetts but New York is better or more peaceably governed than are Mississippi and Georgia and Arkansas today. The negroes have not less profited by the change than the whites. They are protected in every right and privilege, and ther harmony between the races is uninterrupted and secure. The contact between the past and the present is so strong, is so marked by the restored prosperity of the material inteaests of both races and the good feeling which prevails between them, that every good citizen of the United States, North or South, must hope for the regeneration of South Carolina by a like agency. This would be secured by a majority for Tilden and Hendricks and for the State Democratic ticket in November. And as with South Carolina so with Louisiana.

The Storm.

[Richmond Whig.]

The meteorological phenomena we witnessed yesterday was a thunder storm, and such a one as has not been witnessed in Richmond for sixteen years. It blew great guns, and the rain fell in torrents, while the rattling hail was like a dropping fire of musketry in battle. This was but the natural elemental reaction of the terrible heated spell from which we have suffered so seriously in life and health during the past three or four weeks. And although some trees were uprooted and houses unroofed, while there may have been much damage done to property and some injury to limb, yet the beneficial results can scarcely be estimated.

And so will it be with the political storm that is now gathering. That, too, will be a great reaction, one that will dispel all our anxieties for national health and purge the atmosphere from every species of impurity. Let, then, the lightnings flash and the thunders roll, and shake the solid earth, while the winds uproot old prejudices and the rains wash out old abuses, as did the deluge of old, for so shall we, by our triumph in November, wash away the corruptions of the past and restore our beloved country to health and happiness.

Nominee for Governor of Missouri.

(New York Tribune.)

Col. John S. Phelps has been nominated for Governor of Missouri, by a considerable majority over Colonel George Vest, and in some quarters the result is hailed as a victory of the "Union Democracy" over the Confederate element. Vest waged war in the Confederate Congress. Phelps was one of those Union officers who served honorably early in the war, but never had much sympathy with what was called a "war for the abolition of slavery." Long before the war, Phelps was a Democrat of note for years a member of Congress, and Chairman of the Committee of Ways and Means in the House. He is not quite as vigorous as he was 20 years ago, but is a man of good ability and pure character. He was the beaten Democratic candidate for Governor in 1868, has been a standing candidate for Governor or Senator ever since, and at last is likely to be rewarded for his pertinacity.

Shake Out Your Pinback.

[Clorinda Herald.]

"Pull down your vest," "Wipe off your chin," "Shoot that hat," these were three samples of slang we heard the other day within five minutes from as many young bloods, and we were just on the point of saying something about the abominable growth of slang phrases, when two young ladies passed by, and when one of them audibly said to the other, "Shake out your pinback," we concluded to reserve our lecture.

WASHINGTON.

Bluford Wilson Before the Whiskey Committee--Dividend Declared--The President signs the Silver and the Army Appropriation Bill--Beauregard's Disabilities Removed.

WASHINGTON, July 24.—Bluford Wilson is here to testify before the Whiskey Committee.

The Comptroller of the Currency has declared a final dividend to the creditors of the First National Bank of Washington, paying them in full.

The President has signed the Silver and Army Appropriation bill, also a resolution removing Gen'l Beauregard's disabilities.

Confirmations: Thomas J Brady Second Assistant Postmaster; Gen'l W. C. Spruance, District Attorney for Delaware; Thomas B. Shannon, Collector of Customs at San Francisco; also the following for appointment by transfer to the 7th Cavalry, Second Lieutenant Evans; Wm. Robinson Jr., Daniel C. Pearson, Charles B Schofield, George T. Chase, John N Wilkinson, Ezra B. Fuller, George O. Eaton, Edwin P. Audrus, John C. Gresham, Hugh L. Scott, L. S. McCormick, and Albert J. Russell; also George F. Talbott, Solicitor to Treasury, vice Bluford Wilson.

In the House Mr. Hurlburt offered a resolution reciting that the Northwestern Indians are supplied with arms requiring special metallic cartridges and directing the President to take measures to prevent such special ammunition being conveyed to the Indians. Referred to the committee on Military Affairs.

Under a call of States a number of bills were introduced and read by demand.

Mr. Young, of Tennessee, moved to suspend the rules and adopt the resolution directing the Attorney-General, Secretary of Treasury and Commissioner of Internal Revenue to suspend until the first of February next all further action in reference to lands sold for direct taxes under the act of August 5th, 1861. Adopted yeas 139; nays 45.

Mr. Kellogg, of Pennsylvania moved to suspend the rules and pass a bill to provide for the coinage of the standard silver dollar of 4124 grains as provided in the act of 18th of January, '37, and to make it a legal tender in payment for any sum whatever. Adopted—yeas 179; nays 68.

Hill, of Georgia, from the Committee of Ways and Means reported back the Senate bill extending to the first of February next the time within which lands held by the United States under several acts levying direct taxes may be redeemed. He explained that in 1872 an act passed extending time for redemption two years. In 1874 another act was passed extending the time one year. This bill already passed by the Senate extended the time for the redemption till February next under the same restrictions and regulations as under the previous laws.

Conger, of Michigan, inquired as to the effect of the bill on Arlington and other soldiers cemeteries. Would it affect them?

Hill replied that this bill had certainly no such object.

Conger. Will it have such a result?

Hill; it cannot possibly have such a result. If it could possibly have had such an object or such a result it certainly never would have passed the Senate, besides the soldiers cemeteries are provided for and protected under the law of 1872, and this is simply an extension of that act, any apprehension of that kind is wholly unfounded. After further discussions the bill passed.

Cox of N. Y. asked leave to offer a resolution authorizing the several committees to report at any time during the remainder of this session in regard to all matters under investigation by such committees.

Hale, of Main object.

Cox—Then I move to suspend the rules.

Banks, of Massachusetts—I desire to know whether on the presentation of these reports, they are to supercede all other business.

Cox—Reports will be made, and o course they will be printed.

Banks—But are they to be reported for action?

Springer—They may be postponed by a majority vote.

Cox—I propose to wind up by next Monday, the business of the House in regard to these investigations.

Hale—In other words, after the committees have waited eight months this is to give them leave to report at any time.

Banks—And to supersede all the business of the House to act upon these reports.

Cox—We must act upon them before the adjournment.

Banks—But they can take their order.

Cox—Let the gentlemen vote against it.

Cannon, of Illinois—I would like to have the resolutions amended requiring the reports to be submitted to the minorities of the Committees.

Randall—There will be no objection to that.

Motion to suspend rules and adopt the resolution was defeated by a party vote.

Yeas 121, nays 77, not two thirds.

Impeachment resumed, managers Jencks and Counsellor Black argued.

Executive session adjourned.

Arrival of a Courier--He Escapes From Two Hundred Indians--All Quiet at Crook's Camp--Telegrams from Gen. Phil. H. Sheridan and Gen. Geo. Crook--Ten Companies for Gen. Crook Movements of Terry--Couriers From Crook.

CHEYENNE, July 24.—A Courier which left Goose Creek on the 16th has reached Fort Fetterman, he escaped from 200 Indians on Powder River, who were watching him, and hears that they captured the outward bound scouts. All quiet at Crook's Camp. The active campaign will open about August the 15th.

WASHINGTON, July 24.—The following dispatches were received last night:

CHICAGO, July 23—To General W. T. Sherman. The following dispatches from General Crook is transmitted for your information, General Merritt will reach General Crook's Camp, on August 15th, with ten companies of cavalry instead of eight as at first contemplated. General Terry has moved his depot from the North of Powder river to Big horn or Rosebud and has notified me of his intention to form a junction with Crook.

(Signed) P. H. SHERIDAN.
Lieut. Gen.

CAMP ON GOOSE CREEK, July 24, 1876.

General Sheridan, Chicago: I send in a Courier to-day to carry in the duplicates of my dispatch to General Merritt for fear the original may not have reached their destination. I send a Courier to Gen. Terry to-night to inform him that I will cooperate with him and where to find me also giving what information I have in regard to the Indians, my intention is to move out after the hostiles as soon as Merritt gets here with the 50 reinforcemens and I shall not probably send in any other courier unless something special should occur, requiring me to do so. I am getting anxious about Merritts ability to reach me so soon as the grass is getting very dry and the Indians are liable to burn it at any time.
